

I agree with most of the proposals set forth in RM-10868, except I believe 80 meters should be substituted for 160 meters. Maintaining a pool of operators exposed to CW, which I consider the most reliable mode, will improve communications in time of disaster.